

THE POWER OF PLACE

The Intersection of Memoir & Poetry

Saturday June 24, 2017

9am-4pm

Coastal Studies for Girls, 308 Wolfe's Neck Road, Freeport, Maine

Have you considered how the power of place has influenced your personal choices and professional views? Have you wondered about using poetry or memoir to explore the role place has played in your identity?

Join memoirists and poets Ann Bracken and Kathy Leydon-Conway as they lead you through a series of writing exercises that explore how place shapes both personal and professional identities.

For more information visit the Coastal Studies for Girls website at www.coastalstudiesforgirls.org or email info@coastalstudiesforgirls.org